Directions: Please follow the steps listed below in order to provide the most helpful feedback to your fellow writer. Remember that your role is to support your classmate in his or her development as a writer, so your comments, compliments and suggestions should be thoughtful, encouraging and specific.

1. Read the Imaginative Autobiography from beginning to end. Do not make notes or edit while you do this--just read through the entire piece.
2. Reread the Imaginative Autobiography, but this time use proofreading symbols to signal any mistakes that you find with CUPS: capitalization, word usage, punctuation and spelling.
3. Refer to the attached list of the six writing traits. Of these six traits, which would you consider the strongest in the piece you just read? State an example or a reason to support your opinion.
